Joseph Rowntree Charitable Trust (JRCT) The Joseph Rowntree Charitable Trust (JRCT) has announced a new phase of support for organisations in the light of the Covid-19 crisis – funding which specifically responds to the dual harms of the pandemic and systemic racism. For more information <https://www.jrct.org.uk/when-to-apply>

The Voluntary Services Recovery Fund <https://wcva.cymru/voluntary-services-recovery-fund-now-open/> New Welsh Government fund, administered by WCVA, that will focus on the recovery phase of the pandemic, aiming to support actions need to take place to ensure a fair and just recovery for people in Wales.

Third Sector Resilience and Recovery Loan Fund for Wales

<https://wcva.cymru/funding/social-investment-cymru/third-sector-resilience-fund-for-wales/> - Deadline extended to 31st March 2021

This fund is open for applications and is part of the £24M of support announced by Welsh Government. The fund will involve a blend of 75% grant and 25% (initially interest free) loan to be available to incorporated voluntary sector organisations towards the costs of ongoing revenue expenditure, including salaries. This fund is designed to support those voluntary sector organisations that need financial support to survive the current crisis primarily because of an unprecedented fall in their fundraising and donation income. Organisations can apply for up to £75,000. In order to submit a request for funding, you will need to register with WCVA's Multipurpose Application Portal (MAP). Organisations can register by visiting the website map.wcva.cymru

The 2021/22 Volunteering Wales Grants scheme is now open to applications, with an emphasis on projects supporting the Well-being of Future Generations Act. See separate attachment or go to <https://wcva.cymru/funding/vwg/>

Track 2000 Grant Legacy Fund Covid /19 Support Grant This restricted revenue grant is specific to registered organisations that need additional support in reaching out to the most vulnerable in our society, who have or will be facing hardship, loneliness or potential mental and physical health issues due to this pandemic. We would strongly consider grants from organisations supplying front line services (non statutory) who need additional staff members or vital resources for this specific support facility, with key aims and objectives in delivering this front line service. Grants upward of £15,000 would be considered from registered organisations based in Cardiff, Newport and Vale of Glamorgan only. For more information visit our website: www.grantlegacyfund.org.uk Deadline – end of February 2021

The Waterloo Foundation (TWF) is an independent grant-making Foundation created in 2007, and based in Cardiff, Wales. We are a registered charity with the Charity Commission for England and Wales and give grants to organisations in both the UK and world-wide. We also have a dedicated Wales Fund of which further information can be found here but, briefly, we award grants to organisations that support unpaid carers, especially young carers; help people into permanent paid employment or self-employment or offer educational support by trying to close the attainment gap or by providing STEM based opportunities. We are also fortunate to have a little flexibility to consider smaller amounts of funding to charities and community groups that are working hard to support their communities, particularly through these difficult times, even if perhaps their work doesn't strongly align to our main funding priorities.

The Volant Trust accepts applications from charities in the UK and internationally that demonstrate a strong focus on alleviating social deprivation and helping vulnerable groups who have been particularly impacted by the Covid-19 pandemic. The deadline for applications is 31 July 2021. <https://www.volanttrust.org/how-to-apply-covid-19/>
